Press Release

On 051218 at 1944 hours officers were dispatched to a disturbance involving at least five individuals fighting at the Air Crest Motel, 1006 East Front Street. Dispatch received multiple calls of a man pointing a handgun in the parking lot.

Officers arrived on-scene and located a male, later identified as Joshua Small of Port Angeles, with his hands up and in possession of a Glock 9 mm pistol.

It was later determined that the incident was a domestic disturbance over the exchange of children and the children's clothing. Friends and family members of the estranged couple became involved in the argument. Small had arrived with the female half, but was at the far end of the parking lot away from the disturbance. A male walking towards the disturbance heard someone yelling at him from behind and across the parking lot. When he turned he reported that Small was pointing a pistol at his head.

The initial disturbance was determined to be a verbal domestic disturbance. Small was arrested and booked in the Clallam County Jail for brandishing a firearm.
