Press Release

On 052518 a reporting party found a plastic sack of mail located at Crown Park, 1925 West 4th Street. There were 123 pieces of mail (no junk mail) from Sequim, Port Angeles, and unincorporated Clallam County. Only one piece of mail had been opened which was the only piece of mail that appeared to be a card. The card contained a check was still in the card. Only one piece of mail was from the city of Port Angeles. The rest of the mail was turned over to the Sequim Police Department and the Clallam County Sheriff's Office. The mail will be returned to the intended residents. Based on the dates of the mail, it is believed most of the mail was taken from mailboxes around the first of May.
