Two Suspects in Custody for Burglary, Property Recovered:

On 07/24/2018 at approximately 7:27 am, Officer Luke Brown was dispatched to a report of a burglary that had occurred at a business in the 300 block of E 6th Street. Employees advised Officer Brown that one of the business volunteers had been seen leaving the building in the early hours of the morning with a male. Evidence of forced entry into the building was found and multiple items were found to be missing from the business. Officer Brown was able to identify the suspect as Jamila C. Andrus (Age 30 of Port Angeles) and established probable cause for her arrest.

Later in the day, Officer Brown located Andrus in the area of First and Lincoln Streets and took her into custody. Officer Brown located some of the stolen items in Andrus's possession. Officer Brown was able to identify Andrus's accomplice as Daren J. Akin (age 29 of Port Angeles, WA) and established probable cause for his arrest.

On 07/25/2018 at about 12:58 pm, officers received information that Akin was near the intersection of E. First and Albert Streets. Officers located Akin and took him into custody without incident. Officer Brown located more of the stolen property from the burglary in Akin's possession.

Andrus was booked into the Clallam County Jail for Burglary in the 2nd Degree, Theft in the 2nd Degree, and Malicious Mischief in the 3rd Degree. Akin was booked into the Clallam County Jail for Burglary in the 2nd Degree and Theft in the 2nd Degree.
