POLICE DEPARTMENT

321 East 5th Street

Press Release

Reference: Vehicle vs Pedestrian Accident

On November 6, 2017 at approximately 3:40 PM Port Angeles Police Officers were dispatched to a vehicle vs pedestrian accident, at 1100 block of East Front Street. The Port Angeles Fire Dept. (PAFD) was also dispatched. PAFD Paramedics treated and transported to the hospital the injured pedestrian. She was later identified as Natasha N Taylor (23 years old).

The on scene investigation showed the following: Taylor was walking across Front Street (northbound), at the intersection of Front Street and Jones Street. The driver of a Dodge truck (later identified as Travis M. Berglund, 34 years old and from Port Angeles), was stopped for a stop sign on Jones Street and facing southbound at Front Street. Berglund was checking for vehicular traffic to his left on the one way Street of Front Street. Berglund made a right turn onto Front Street, knocking Taylor to the ground and ran over her legs with both front and rear tires.

Burglund stopped his vehicle and asked other persons present to telephone 911.

Traffic was heavy at the time of the incident. Officers contacted witnesses that observed the area moments after the collision. The police department is looking to identify and speak with all individuals who may have viewed the collision.

Burglund did not exhibit any signs of impairment. The incident remains under investigation. No charges or citations will be issued until the investigation is complete. The Clallam County Sheriff's Department is assisting the Port Angeles Police Department in the investigation.

Anyone who witnessed the accident (and has not already talked with the Police) are asked to contact Corporal Clay Rife at 360 452-4545 or at crife@cityofpa.us.

Sergeant Kevin Miller (kmiller@cityofpa.us) 360 452 4545.

Deputy Chief of Police Jason Viada (jviada@cityofpa.us) 360 417 4902.
